EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Kaiser and Villa both offer to make peace on their own terms.

Greece yields unconditionally to the latest Entente demands.

The best flour at Minneapolis has dropped to $9, which is $1.50 under the highest point reached.

The French are making a big effort to celebrate Christmas in the same trenches they used last Christmas at Verdun.

Joe T. Miles, who wrote the song "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town To-night," is dead at Santa Rosa, Cal., aged 70 years.

David Lloyd-George, the new British premier, is said to be in the same boxing class as our local featherweights, Ed Gaither, Mose Elb and Riley Butler.

The French made another drive at Verdun Friday, taking territory two miles deep along a front of 6 miles and capturing 7,500 Germans and many big guns.

The "Dixie Limited" will be put on again for Southern travel Jan. 8. It will pass Hopkinsville going South about 9:30 at night and going North about 6:30 a. m.

It seems cruel to say it, but if you are tired of your English sparrows, the time to get rid of them is when there is snow on the ground. At such times they eagerly devour wheat and with Paris green.

The skunk trap of a trapper near Auburn, N. Y., was robbed of a freshly caught skunk. A local Sherlock Holmes caught Roy Walter on a strong circumstantial evidence and he was fined $20 and some scents.

Two boy murderers in Sing Sing prison awaiting execution "during the week beginning Dec. 18," chose today instead of Friday, in order to get the grief of their parents dulled as much as possible before Christmas day.

If the owners of the Mammoth Cave property kept their hotel insured, the old rat-harbor has been cashed in, leaving nothing to sell to the Government except what is underground. Now is the time for Bob Thomas to push his national park project.

New York city was snowed under Saturday to a depth of 12 inches, the deepest fall since the 14 inches of Dec. 26, 1890. Snow shovellers were so scarce at 30 cents an hour that 2,000 students of the College volunteered their services. It took three days to shovel it off at an expense of $500,000.

The Central States Conference on Rail and Water Transportation at Evansville turned out to be a big convention of Railroad men. Shippers found little opportunity to present their views on transportation. Hopkinsville sent Geo. E. Gary as a representative by invitation, but the nearest to a "look in" he got was to take an auto ride with Mayor Bosse.

The snow on Saturday morning, 4 inches deep, was cleaned off the sidewalks promptly and much of it melted Sunday only to be followed by a new fall of four inches yesterday morning before day. This too was handled promptly by the citizens, who have been educated to a strict compliance with the snow ordinance passed several years ago.

Ben Marshall, district deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, will visit the Elks Lodge, officially to-night and will be honored with a social session. Just what sort of a program will be pulled off has not been announced, but strong pressure is being brought to bear on Claude Clark, Tom Underwood, Bob Cook and Green Champin to induce them to make a few remarks.

FAMOUS ON 2 CONTINENTS

Riccardo Martin, Great American Tenor, Who Was Born in Hopkinsville.

LIKE A CONQUERING HERO

Returns To Delight His Home People With Magic Burst of Song.

Mr. Hugh (Riccardo) Martin, the great tenor, whose concert engagement delighted a great audience at the tabernacle last night, arrived in the city Saturday and was the guest of his cousin, Mr. T. C. Underwood, while in the city. Miss Bianca Soroya, who sang with him, was at Hotel Latham. Mr. Martin received many callers while in the city, and last night from 10:30 to 11:30 was the honored guest at a popular reception given to him at the Elks Home by the clubs and patriotic organizations of Hopkinsville. Each of the fifteen or more organizations interested was officially represented and the affair in all of its details surpassed any recent function in elegance and brilliancy. As is generally known, Mr. Martin is a native of Hopkinsville and his boyhood days were spent here. The engagement last night was his first professional engagement here and the reception given him was all that he could have asked for.

Not only were the music lovers of Hopkinsville out in large numbers, but in the audience of more than 2000 all neighboring cities within a radius of fifty miles were well represented.

ED PENDLETON

Deputy Sheriff L. C. Cravens returned Sunday night from Dayton, O., where he went to bring back Ed Pendleton, col., an escaped prisoner wanted here on a charge of house breaking in 1910. Pendleton is already indicted and was lodged in jail.

MERRITT CORNER FOUR ENGINEERS IS REMODELED ON PAY ROLL

Handsome Two-story Business House Being Built Opposite L. & N. Depot.

The building owned by George H. Merritt on the corner of Ninth and Railroad streets is undergoing a general overhauling and a new building is being erected around and above the old one-story house. The little alley on the west side is being utilized for a new wall, and the east wall has been torn down and rebuilt without interfering with the occupancy of the building. The new house will cover a lot 35 by 79 feet, and there will be two store rooms fronting on Ninth street and running back 59 feet. Behind these will be one 35 feet deep and fronting 20 feet on the Louisville & Nashville railroad. The corner room will also have a side entrance on the railroad, practically a separate front. The building will have a basement 20 by 34 feet, will be two stories high and the front will be of Rugby No. 77 matt brick. The work is well under way and the contractor, Marion Meacham, expects to have it completed by March 1. The ceilings will be of metal and a steam heating plant will be installed. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

This rather unsightly corner will be turned into an attractive business house, the upper floor being fitted up for offices. The corner room will be designed for a saloon or drug store and the others will be for rent as stores.

FINE BOY FOR GEORGE.

Mrs. Geo. W. Shadoin presented her husband with a fine boy Sunday night.

Dropped Dead.

Hugo Munsterberg, distinguished psychologist, author and professor of psychology and director of psychological laboratory of Harvard University, died suddenly in a classroom at Radcliffe College Saturday.

Out of a field of twelve candidates, R. H. Young, a Louisville engineer with 34 years' experience in road and engineering work, was awarded a contract by County Judge James M. Lang and County Road Engineer John R. Thompson, to take charge of survey and road work under McCracken's $200,000 bond issue. Engineer Young is to receive a salary of $175 a month. Three Paducah engineers, Henry Pulliam, George Scott and Rumsey Bradshaw, were appointed as field assistants at salaries to be named later.

Mr. Young will come to Paducah January 1 and will immediately begin planning the survey work. He is a kinsman of Gen. Bennett H. Young and built the stone walls around Peace Park and the Davis Home at Fairview.—Sun.

BEST CROP SALE.

Jake Torian, of Gracey, has sold his crop of tobacco, about 25,000 or 30,000 pounds, at $12.50 round. This is the best sale of a whole crop that has been reported to the Kentuckian. A good many crops have sold at $11 to $12.

Weather For Week.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Forecasts for the week beginning Sunday announced by the Weather Bureau for the Ohio valley: Monday snows will occur in upper Ohio valley. Snow or rain is also probable about Thursday. Temperature below seasonal normal first part of week, warmer about Wednesday and colder at end of the week.

Visitor Breaks Arm.

C. H. HISGEN AGED PAINTER

For Fifty Years a Resident of The City to Be Buried To-morrow.

Chas. H. Hisgen, the oldest painter in Hopkinsville and for many years a personal custodian of the property here of the late John C. Latham, of New York, died at 5:30 Sunday afternoon from pneumonia, though he had been an invalid for ten months following a fall sustained last February.

Mr. Hisgen was born in Metz, Germany, in 1842, and came to America in 1861 and enlisted as a volunteer in the Union army, serving throughout the war. In 1866 he was married at Petersburg, Ind., to Miss Emma Balsover and came with his bride to Hopkinsville and had lived here ever since. He was one of the finest painters who ever worked in the city and followed the trade for almost 50 years before his health failed. He is survived by his wife and six children. The sons are Chas. W., Hugo, Q. L. and J. W. Hisgen, the latter of Valparaiso, Ind. The daughters are Mrs. C. Turner, of New Mexico, and Mrs. Robt. Morefield, of this city. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, conducted by Rev. Geo. C. Abbott, of Grace Episcopal church, and burial will be with Masonic honors. Mr. Hisgen was a member of the Masons and of the Presbyterian church. As a citizen and master of his trade his worth was appreciated by the community in which the greater part of his life was spent. His body will be laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. MILLER

Aged Lady Presses Away After Much Suffering From Complications.

Mrs. M. K. Miller died Sunday at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Elmo Chappell, on Kentucky avenue, of complications. She was in her 87th year. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and a lady universally loved. Five sons and two daughters survive. A short service was held at the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Dr. Lewis Powell, and the remains will be taken to Bowling Green this morning for interment in the family burying ground, near that place.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Pierce announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mabel, to Mr. Joseph E. Gary, Wednesday evening January 3rd One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventeen at Five O'clock. Maple Lawn, Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

Agree to Wait.

The railroads have voluntarily agreed to postpone the 10 per cent increase of freight rates from the Pacific coast from Dec. 30 to Mar. 1. The increase was permitted by the Interstate Commerce Commission, but the roads thought it best to haul the present crops at the old rates.

Moore-Croft.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to J. R. Moore, son of M. F. Moore, and Miss Theo. M. Croft, daughter of D. M. Croft, of near Crofton. The wedding is scheduled for tomorrow.

FRENCH WIN AT VERDUN

Berlin Admits Capture of Besonveaux Near Verdun by Gen. Nivelle's Troops.

MACKENSEN MAKES HAUL

German War Review Declares the Operations in Wallachia Considered at End.

The French are continuing their great offensive in the Meuse sector of the Verdun front and have made further gains. The British also have made progress and succeeded in Saturday night's engagements in raiding enemy trenches near Ransart and southwest of Wistchaete, gaining a foothold in both cases. The German war office admits the loss to the French of the village of Bezonvaux and a wood to the west of that place, but asserts that the French thrust further to the northward broke down before the German fire on a height north of Bezonvaux.

The new French line at Vecherauville and Bezonvaux and in the Chambrette farm region have been heavily bombed by the German guns. North of the Ancre river in the Somme sector, the British detachments attempted to enter German trenches but were repulsed.

The Teutonic armies under Field Marshal von Mackensen in eastern Wallachia, have crossed the Buzur and lower Calmatuul rivers and in addition to taking 1,150 prisoners, captured great quantities of railroad rolling stock with innumerable vehicles of other kinds. The pursuit of the Russian and Rumanian troops in Dobrudja continues and the Teutonic forces now are close to the forest district in the north, where it is expected the Russo-Rumanian armies will offer a stiff resistance.

A thrust by the Russians near Bliukst was repulsed. This result was accomplished only after three desperate attacks according to Petrograd.

Southwest of Valeputna in the wooded Carpathians, the Russians, after repelling an attack by large German forces at the point of the bayonet, captured a height.

More active artillery bombardments marked the fighting in the Austro-Italian theater. These and patrol engagements are the only events announced from this sector.

POSSUM REGAINED.

Some time ago one of Walter Harned's admiring friends presented him with a 'possum, of which game the hardware man is very fond. It was turned over to John Reed to be put through a fattening process and Mr. Reed spent a good deal of his time scouring the woods in search of late persimmons. The 'possum was kept in a box under the personal supervision of Lander Meacham until about a week ago when he succeeded in escaping from his box and disappeared. The Planter Hardware Co.'s plant covers something like an acre, with a big dark basement, a broad expanse of warehouse and a three-story storehouse in front. Search was made but without success as it was supposed that the animal had escaped by some open door or window and gained his freedom. Saturday night a big steel trap was set in the store for rats and before the clerks left the store they heard the trap spring. When it was examined, there was the missing 'possum, somewhat chagrined, but none the worse off from the surprise that was sprung on him. He is back in his box and Mr. Harned is already licking his chops. Mr. Reed has promised to furnish the potatoes.

TUESDAY, DEC. 19

The Rumanians have even been deprived of their Buzze.

Among the ancient things that escaped the Mammoth Cave hotel fire, were the jokes told by the colored guides.

We doubt if France has helped things by shelving that grim old fighter, Gen. Joffre, the Stonewall Jackson of Europe.

The intimation that Germany is in the market for a status quo antebellum peace has struck even the Englishmen as a joke.

The official count in West Virginia has developed an agreeable surprise.
Although Hughes carried the state by 2,721, one Republican ran behind enough to let in the leading Democratic elector by a small majority.

The veterinarians in session at Louisville last week issued 75 licenses, making 400 in the state. One applicant was turned down because his relatives proved he only wanted the license to give him access to "dope."

Another of our submarines went to the bad last week on the California coast, but in water shallow enough to allow the crew of 26 to be fished out alive. They were bottled up twelve hours.

A bill authorizing licensed physicians to impart information concerning birth control will be among the measures introduced at the session of California Legislature, which opens in January. It was announced the other day, plans for a legislative campaign have been worked out.

Clara Kuth Mozzer, Colorado's new Assistant Attorney-General, will have no difficulty gaining the eye, as well as that of the Court and the jury when she appears on behalf of the state.
She is not only a good lawyer, but is young, pretty and stunning. She wears up-to-date clothes and her black eyes sparkle with intelligence.

The boys up at the Fire Department are worrying over their inability to pull off the annual banquet this Christmas, because the high cost of trying to live makes it harder to find the necessary $75. It will be the first time they have missed in many years.
There is still a bare chance that some philanthropist may ask the privilege of footing the bill.

The first real snow of the season,
deep enough to cover the ground, fell Thursday and continued to fall into the night. Friday the snow was 4 inches in depth and there was as usual a diversity of comments on the weather. Children played in the snow, old people complained of it, and Tom Wall was reminded of a snow we had Feb. 2, 1886, that was 26 inches deep on a dead level.

The other day Chief K per summoned a jury of six to try a case in city court. One of the jurors had been fortifying himself against possible snake-bites and as the trial proceeded in the warm room and prosecutor Joe Slaughter became vehement in his address to the jury, the juror question roused up and angrily asked: "What are you talking about?"

DECREASE KY. TAX LEVY

Report Will Be Considered At Special Legislative Session.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 18.—The long looked for report of the state tax commission has been turned over to Gov.
Stanley. In the report several bills have been drawn up which are to be submitted to the special session of the General Assembly in January, and they are so drawn as to try to relieve Kentucky's citizens of the antiquated tax system, which has kept many industries from the state. The most important bill offered by the commission is one reclassifying the state's property which, if carried out, the commission declares, will bring about an immediate reduction of the state rate of 50 cents on the $100 to 40 cents on the $100.

During the past few weeks the "wet" and "dry" question bobbed up in regard to the coming report of the commission, and it was asserted by the "dry" forces that an increased license would be placed upon all saloons in the state and that this would be sufficient within the next two years to wipe out the state's indebtedness.
However, no reference is made to saloons being taxed except in former years, but the real burden is to be borne will be by the land, coal and timber barons of Kentucky.

The old law is re-enacted in the new one whereby real estate property shall be assessed by the county supervisors at the price the property would bring on the market. This means that instead of paying taxes on land in the Bluegrass region at the rate of something like $60 per acre, the farmers will have to pay nearly double that amount. It also hits the coal and timber barons, who have gotten away with only nominal taxation in the past.

Intangible property will not be assessed, if the recommendation of the commission is heeded. This will allow raw materials in factories to have more leeway in the matter of taxation than formerly.

In the proposed law there is to be a tax commission, a nonpartisan body, composed of three members, not more than two of them to be of the same political faith. These commissioners are not to be less than 30 years of age and by taking office office as commissioners are at once disqualified for holding public office for a period of four years after the expiration of their terms. The commissioners shall be named by the governor, at a salary of $4,000 per annum.
The commission shall then organize as the members see fit. A secretary, who will receive $2,000 per year, will be chosen by the commission. Suitable accommodations are to be provided for the body in the capital. All expenses of the commission shall not exceed $20,000 per year. The commission is to be in continuous session with the exceptions of Sundays and holidays.

When any amount is involved sufficient under existing laws to authorize an appeal to the court of appeals, the judgment of the circuit court shall be subject to appeal to the court of appeals by either party, subject to the same costs, fees and penalties as in other civil cases. On such appeals the attorney-general will represent the commission.

The section covering annual taxes follows:

"An annual tax of 40 cents upon each $100 of value of property directed to be assessed for taxation, as hereinafter provided, shall be paid by the owner, person or corporation assessed. Of the aggregate amount of tax realized by all assessments 21 1/2 fifty-fifths for the support of the common schools; two fifty-fifths for the use of the sinking fund; one-half of one-fifty-fifth for the University of Kentucky; and five fifty-fifths for the state road fund. The tax herein provided for the University of Kentucky shall be in lieu of the tax provided by an act approved April 29, 1880."

One step in the proposed law which is hoped by the members will aid in bringing outside capital to the state is under the head of "Exemption Stockholders." In this clause it is provided that the individual stockholders of a corporation, at least one-fourth of whose property is taxable in Kentucky, shall be exempted possession, becomes one of the most powerful bodies in Kentucky. Its duties are far reaching. Aside from passing on the work of county supervisors who have gone over the books of their own county assessor, the commission may raise the rate in any particular county. The commission also has the power to single out any corporation, which in the belief of the commissioners, has not turned in all of its holdings for assessment and after making an investigation add to the list already taxed the items which have been held out. It is also within the power of the commission to fine each and every corporation or person who withholds goods from the county assessor.

Another feature of the proposed act is as to corporation, a small tax whose be imposed upon all depositors in all banks. It is suggested that the banks pay this tax. It is believed by financial men that banks will use this provision in their campaigns for de-positors. By offering to pay the tax on deposits it is believed banks would be able to secure many more deposits than formerly.

The activities of the present tax commission, which has served without remuneration, has lasted since the session of the last Legislature in 1916. The commissioners have studied the taxation laws of many states and they believe that the proposed law will not only relieve the situation in the state but will be the cause of many new industries coming to Kentucky. The commission also agree that under the proposed law that the present debt of the state will soon be liquidated.

Germany Tired of War.

A Berlin dispatch says: Women flocked to the churches and men shook hands in the street Tuesday when the peace proposal was announced. The note was read Tuesday to all reserves and troops resting behind the front.
Soldiers at the front or on the way to and from the trenches read it on the bulletin boards. It was received with spontaneous shouts of joy, tempered later by doubts as to whether the ententes will agree to peace now. It is generally agreed that if the proposal is rejected fighting will continue with renewed vigor.

Could Not Write.

Versailles, Ky. - Mrs. Elisha Green of this place, says: "I could not write all the different pains I had, when I first tried Cardui. I could scarcely walk. In the past 51 years, it has been found to relieve women's unnecessary pains, and female misery, for which over a million suffering women have successfully used it. Try Cardui for your troubles. TIME FOR CUTTING ALFALFA

Crop Should Be Allowed to Grow Slightly Longer for Horses Than Other Live Stock.

(By A. C. ARMY.)

For all classes of animals except horses, alfalfa should be cut for hay when the new shoots or stems begin to appear at the crown. These are easily seen just as they come up among the old stems at about the beginning of blossoming time. Cutting earlier than this is not desirable or profitable, since the yield will be smaller and the hay will be more difficult to cure. It should not be allowed to get much beyond this stage for two reasons: (1) Although a somewhat heavier first cutting of hay can be secured by allowing it to stand longer than the time recommended, the hay is neither as palatable, nor as nutritious. (2) Leaving the first crop after it is at the proper stage to cut delays and reduces the second crop, since the new shoots coming from the crown are cut off with the first crop. When alfalfa is to be fed to horses, it may be allowed to grow slightly longer than when it is to be fed to cattle, but it should never be left until the second crop is injured in cutting the first crop.

THE ZEAL OF ZENATELLO.

Giovanni Zenatello!
Operatically speaking, his is a name to conjure with.

Signor Zenatello had just finished his morning "workout," vocally speaking. His cheeks glowed radiantly and his blue eyes brought visions of the Mediterranean on a sunny morning. Zenatello is very youthful in appearance and life is simply bubbling within him. There is a drama in every word he utters, in every gesture he makes. Beyond a doubt the Z in his name stands for Zeal. He is the personification of it. His career abounds in it.

"It is exercise, exercise and more exercise, signor," he said, smiling. "That is the way a voice is made,

"Signor," he continued, "I am surprised, I am astounded—I am how do you say it?—I am overcome, when I hear Zenatello on the Edison. I don't believe it at first. Then I cry, 'It is Zenatello! It is Zenatello!'"

"I hear myself on talking machines, signor. I sing for talking machines in Milan and New York, but," and here the tenor made a little grimace, "but I do not here Zenatello on talking machines."

"Mr. Edison is the only one who—what you say?—Re-Creates my voice. On the Edison I sing like I sing at home or on the stage. I sing like Zenatello always sings. There is nothing complicated about the Edison. You sing yourself and the Edison sings and you cannot tell the difference, signor."

Zenatello's career is marked by never-tiring energy and boundless love of his art. Even as a boy in Verona his voice attracted attention. He was then a chorister in a small church. He began to take lessons at night from the chorus master. For five years he studied, though often was tempted to give up the fight. At the age of 21 he joined a small traveling operatic troupe, making his first appearance as a baritone in an insignificant role. One night in Naples the gods flung him a lucky pass. The only tenor of the troupe was taken ill and Zenatello was impressed to fill the breach.

"I know the part by heart," he said to the Director, "and I think I can sing it."

That night Zenatello was born, musically speaking. This was seventeen years ago.

For four years Zenatello was the leading tenor of the La Scala, at Milan; for six years the idol of the Theatre Colon, Buenos Aires, and later came to New York to create the leading tenor roles in Hammerstein's Manhattan Opera Company.

Will There be REAL MUSIC in Your Home This Christmas?

There is no one so unmusical as to believe that a talking machine produces real music. At best, a talking machine, no matter how much it costs, no matter what artists make records for it, no matter what claims are made for it by its manufacturers, gives only a hollow imitation of the original music.

The NEW EDISON is Not a Talking Machine

This new invention of the world's greatest inventor is in no sense a talking machine.

It represents more than two million dollars spent in research work by Mr. Edison.

It represents the achievements of his ambition to produce a musical instrument which Re-creates all forms of music so perfectly that the original cannot be distinguished from the Re-Creation.

By hundreds of tests, before hundreds of thousands of music lovers, it has been proved conclusively that when an artist sings—or plays—in comparison with the New Edison's Re-Creation of that artist's performance, it is impossible to distinguish the original from the Re-Creation.

The music critics of more than 200 of America's leading newspapers testify to this fact in the columns of their own papers. We shall be glad to show you what the critics say.

Hear This New Invention

Come to our store and let us give you a concert of Re-created music. Come at any time. You will always be welcome. There is no obligation to buy. We merely want you to hear what we consider the world's greatest musical instrument.

Value of Reading.

There is perhaps nothing that has a greater tendency to decide favorably or unfavorably respecting a man's intellect than the question whether or not he be impressed with an early love of reading. Books gratify and excite our curiosity in innumerable ways. They force us to reflect. In a well-written book we are presented with the maturest reflections of the happiest flights of a mind of uncommon excellence. It is impossible that we can be much accustomed to such companions without attaining some resemblance to them.—William Godwin.

WOOD IDENTIFICATION.

The distinguishing characteristics of more than 400 native and 100 foreign woods have been determined and systematically arranged by the United States forest products laboratory at Madison, Wis. Use is made of these data—partly revealed only by the microscope—in identifying the woods submitted for examination, more than 1,000 samples being sent in yearly. The information supplied is of greatly variable importance to the inquirer, as is illustrated by the fact that one person wished to satisfy his curiosity as to the wood used for a certain chess pawn, while in another case a contractor had thousands of ties that a railroad company had rejected as red oak instead of the white oak specified.

THAT HELPS.

"Don't you find it rather expensive?"

FALL AND WINTER PLOWING

Number of Advantages in Practice—Various Kinds of Insects Exposed to Cold Weather.

There are a number of advantages in fall and winter plowing. The destruction of insects is not the least of them. Army worms, cut worms, Hessian fly, grasshoppers and other very injurious insects live over the winter in the ground and by fall plowing or disking, these insects are exposed to the freezing weather and killed, or they are crushed and disturbed in their winter sleep so that they perish. Old stubble fields should always be plowed during the fall or winter if the land is so situated as not to wash.—Farmer's Guide.

Stiff, Sore Muscles Relieved.

Cramped muscles or soreness following a cold or case of gripe are eased and relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment. Credit.

Credit is the prolific parent of extravagance, and the piper has been sharp enough to find it out. He suffers those who dance to pay him some other day, with the result that they dance a good deal more than they otherwise would. Often they dance more than they can afford, but that's nothing to the piper.—Life.

U. S. Steel Drops Over 7

Rail Shares Hold Ground.

New York, Dec. 18.—The stock market experienced another drastic downward movement leaders other than rails falling 5 to 12 points under recent low levels and from 20 to almost 50 points under maximum of last month. Railroads recorded relatively small losses with a few actual gains. Total sales, amounted to 2,500,000 shares, of which United States Steel and similar industrials as well as the so-called war group furnished nearly half.

Among the greatest declines were United States Steel which fell seven and one-eighth points to 112 1/8.

Dixie Highway Dedication.

The formal dedication of the Dixie highway will be held under the Illinois Highway association today. The ceremonies will take place at Danville, Ill., near the Indiana-Illinois line, and is thus made of peculiar significance to the citizens of both states.

The Dixie highway should be of particular interest to Evansville. Because that highway turns at Danville and goes through Indianapolis, French Lick and Louisville, leaving this city off the route, a movement was started to build the Dixie Bee Line, to join the main road at Danville and run through this city, reaching the Dixie highway at Nashville.

The Dixie Bee Line will be the route taken by tourists going from Chicago to the South. They will generally avoid the roundabout route through French Lick. We look forward with anticipation to the day when the Bee Line is finished and Evansville is on the direct line between Chicago and the gulf.—Courier.
